

STOP PRESS!

- Assisting his clients on a one to one basis to become more successful in the business and organizational worlds through psychologically based coaching aimed at removing blockages to their reaching their potential.
- Helping his clients acquire the psychological 'edge' in sport, the performing arts and other areas of performance.
- Helping clients overcome the after effects of traumatic events such as road traffic accidents, being held hostage, violent crime and burglary.

For consultations in Harley Street, West London click on the following link:

www.psychologistinwestlondon.co.uk

For consultations in Dartmouth, Devon click on the following link:

www.psychologistindartmouth.co.uk

3. John Potter is now an internationally recognised speaker, consultant and seminar in a number of subject areas including leadership, negotiation, influence and persuasion, scenario planning, problem solving and decision making. For details of his speaking and corporate consulting work visit www.247coaching.com

4. Visiting Fellow at Cass Business School, City University, London.

John Potter was appointed Visiting Fellow at Cass Business School in January 2009. One of his first projects has been to contribute to the Henry Stewart series of talks on Change which features speakers from some of the world's top business schools. John's talk is entitled "Managing Energy for Change" and may be accessed through the Henry Stewart website www.hstalks.com

Click on 'marketing and management' then 'talks building energy for change. Series Change Management.